

CALL FOR PAPERS
Asia Pacific Journal of Management (APJM)
Paper Development Workshop (PDW)
Academy of Management Annual Meeting 2026
Philadelphia, USA

Date: Friday, July 31, 2026

Time: 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Venue: To be announced

The Asia Pacific region continues to play a pivotal role in shaping global management scholarship. As theoretical, institutional, and organizational dynamics evolve across the region, there is growing demand for rigorous, contextually grounded research that advances both theory and practice. The Asia Pacific Journal of Management (APJM) invites scholars to participate in a Paper Development Workshop (PDW) at the 2026 Academy of Management Annual Meeting to strengthen high-potential research and enhance its positioning for publication.

Session Overview

This PDW is designed to support scholars seeking to advance research on management and organizations in the Asia Pacific context. Through constructive dialogue and mentorship, participants will receive developmental feedback from APJM's editorial team focused on:

- Strengthening theoretical contributions
- Enhancing methodological rigor
- Clarifying contribution positioning
- Improving alignment with APJM's mission and scope

The workshop aims to help authors refine their manuscripts and increase their readiness for submission to leading journals.

Editorial Team Participants

- Chinmay Pattnaik, The University of Sydney (Editor-in-Chief)
- Siah Hwee Ang, Victoria University of Wellington (Deputy Editor-in-Chief)
- Mike Peng, University of Texas at Dallas (Consulting Editor)

... and several additional editors from APJM

Participants will engage in interactive, developmental discussions with members of the editorial team.

Who Should Apply?

Scholars at all career stages who are conducting research relevant to management and organizations in the Asia Pacific region are encouraged to apply. Submissions should clearly articulate:

- The study's theoretical contribution
- Its relevance to the Asia Pacific context

Both early-stage projects and more developed manuscripts are welcome.

Submission Guidelines

Interested scholars should submit either:

- A full paper, or
- An extended abstract

Submission Deadline: June 15, 2026

Submission Email: apjmpdw2026@gmail.com

Important Notes

- Participation is limited and competitive.
- Authors must be registered for the Academy of Management 2026 Annual Meeting in order to attend this PDW.
- Additional session details, including venue information, will be announced closer to the meeting date.
